RE: MUR 4830 (Suzanne Fisher)

Dear Mr. Turley:

I have received a copy of a complaint filed against the Udall For Us All Committee which somehow suggests that I have violated the law, although the complaint does not specify how. I have reviewed my records and have found that I made three contributions to the Udall For Us All Committee. The contributions were made on October 28, 1997 for $500, March 16, 1998 for $500, and July 28, 1998 for $1000. The first two contributions, made prior to the New Mexico Primary on June 2nd were primary election contributions and the July, 1998 contribution was a general election contribution. I gather, however, that the Udall Committee mistakenly identified the July contribution as a primary election contribution on its reports. In fact, the Committee called me to notify me that the campaign had checked the wrong box with respect to my July contribution. Thus, while my contributions were within the legal limits of the law, the Udall Committee simply made a reporting error. I would also note that my husband made contributions to the Udall Committee by separate check and that the Committee made a similar mistake with respect to his July, 1998 contribution.

I assume that this explanation should resolve this matter with respect to both my husband and myself.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Fisher
